

BioSense

Public Health Surveillance Through Collaboration

<https://biosen.se>

2.0

Using Surveillance Data to Inform Emergency Preparedness Activities

Stacey Kokaram, MPH

Associate Director, Office of Public Health Preparedness
Boston Public Health Commission

BioSense

Public Health Surveillance Through Collaboration

<https://biosen.se>

2.0

Office of Public Health Preparedness

Public Health
Emergency
Preparedness

Healthcare
System
Preparedness

Community Preparedness

Training & Education: DelValle
Institute for Emergency
Preparedness

Public Health and Medical Services Response and Recovery Operations

Healthcare System Preparedness

BioSense

Public Health Surveillance Through Collaboration

<https://biosen.se>

2.0

PUBLIC Health & Medical Response & Recovery

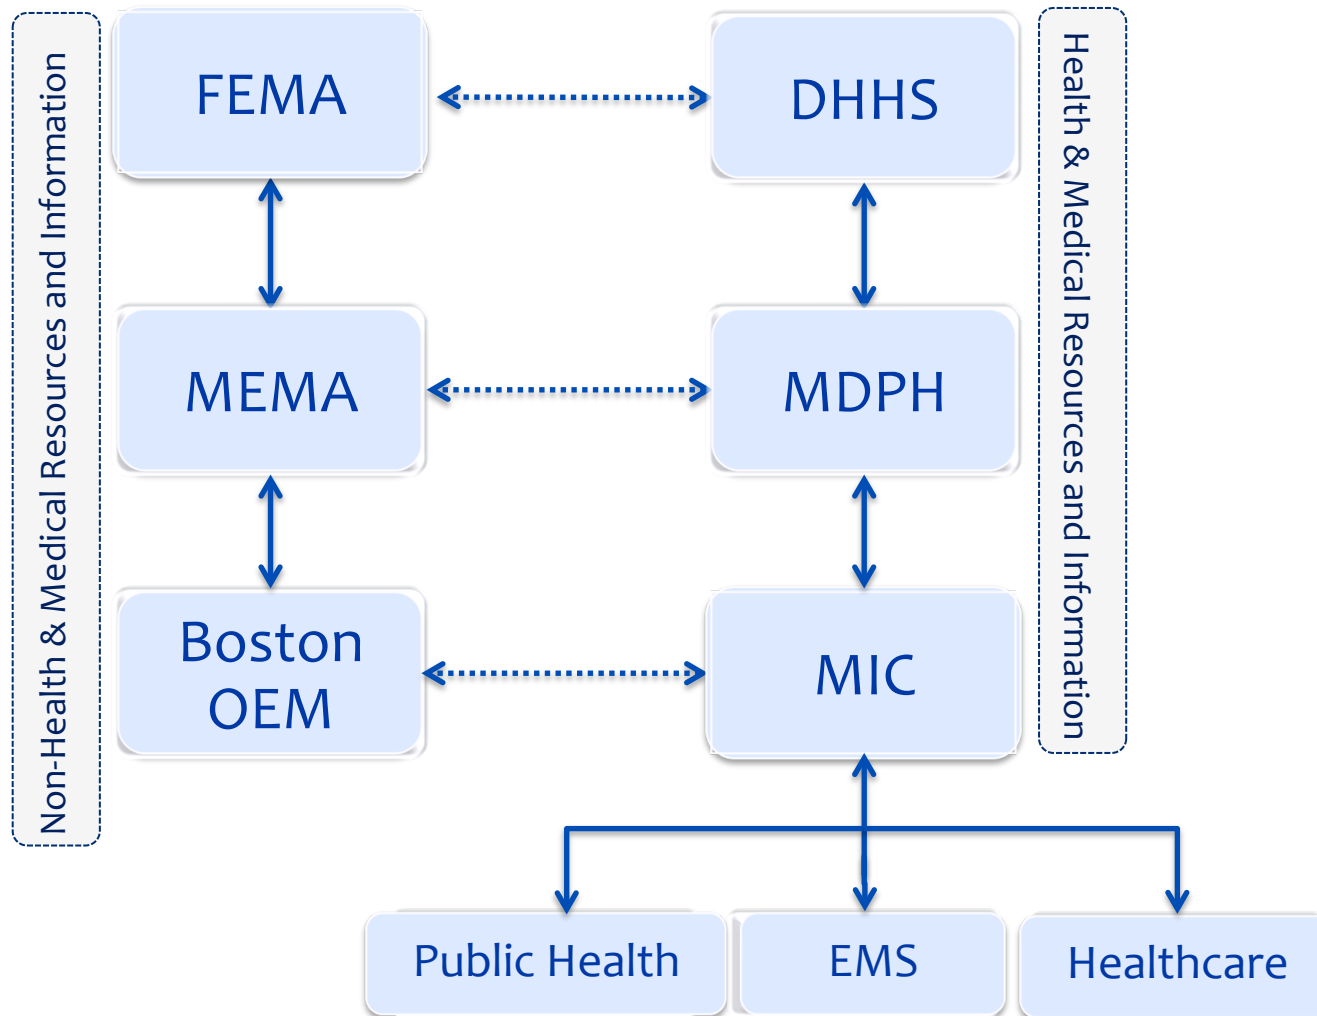

STEPHEN M. LAWLOR
MEDICAL INTELLIGENCE CENTER

Boston Public Health
Commission
Department
Operations
Center (DOC)

ESF-8
Multi-Agency
Coordination
Center (MACC)

Boston EMS
Operations
Resource

Boston Response Infrastructure

Information Sharing

Winter Weather Surveillance Data

- ❑ Carbon monoxide exposures
- ❑ Slips & falls
- ❑ Emergency department visits
- ❑ Influenza-like illness

Healthcare Partners

- ❑ Medical surge planning
- ❑ Community-based flu clinics
- ❑ Healthcare sector outreach
- ❑ Discipline-specific Guidance

Messaging to the Public

- ❑ Boston Health Resilience Network
- ❑ Boston Medical Reserve Corps
- ❑ Community Preparedness Workshops

BioSense

Public Health Surveillance Through Collaboration

<https://biosen.se>

2.0

Thank You!
Stacey Kokaram, MPH
617-343-1165
skokaram@bphc.org

For more information please contact Centers for Disease Control and Prevention

1600 Clifton Road NE, Atlanta, GA 30333

Telephone, 1-800-CDC-INFO (232-4636)/TTY: 1-888-232-6348

E-mail: cdcinfo@cdc.gov Web: www.cdc.gov